Swami Paramatmananda is a scholar of Advaita Vedanta, as well as an excellent communicator. As such, he reminds audiences of the unique teaching style of his guru, Pujya Swami Dayananda Saraswati. The depth of his knowledge of Upanishads, Bhagavad Gita and Brahma Sutras is very ably brought out by him in a manner that connects him to both householders and sannyasis. His command of English and Sanskrit, plus an empathy for the students is wrapped in humor and practical examples. A rare teacher indeed!
